

NOT TO ARREST CHINESE.

AN ORDER ISSUED FROM THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE EXCLUSION ACT DELAYED UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS.

GOVERNOR PENNOYER'S DISPATCH.

Washington, May 4.—The text of the order instructing United States officials not to arrest Chinese who have not registered was telegraphed from the Treasury Department today, as follows:

Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., May 4, 1903.

The time within which Chinese laborers are required by the act of May 3, 1902, to procure certificates of residence will expire on the fifth day of the present month, and it is evident from the partial reports made to this Department by the collectors of internal revenue that in some of the States and Territories large numbers of such persons have failed or refused to make application as required, by the law, but until complete reports are received the names and residences of those who have registered and procured certificates, and who therefore are exempt from arrest, cannot be officially known.

Collectors of internal revenue and collectors of customs and all other customs officials of the United States are and are instructed to refrain from making arrest under the provisions of the sixth section of the act approved May 3, 1902, entitled "An Act to Prohibit the Coming of Chinese Persons into the United States," until further orders and instructions from this Department.

J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

The Attorney-General has supplemented this circular by instructing the United States District Attorneys to delay proceedings under the act of May 3, 1902, except under order of court, until necessary arrangements for the arrest, imprisonment and deportation of accused persons can be perfected, of which due notice must be given to the collector of customs. The Attorney-General has also instructed the United States District Attorneys to delay proceedings under the act of May 3, 1902, except under order of court, until necessary arrangements for the arrest, imprisonment and deportation of accused persons can be perfected, of which due notice must be given to the collector of customs.

NO SUMMONS SENT TO MR. MEAKIN.

Washington, May 4.—At the White House today all knowledge of any summons to Alexander Meakin, of New York City, to come here to meet the President was denied. It had been rumored that Mr. Meakin was called here to confer with the President relative to the Postoffice appointment, with the intimation that the place was to be offered to him. Mr. Meakin does not appear to be in the city.

ARRESTED ON THE CHARGE OF FORGERY.

W. A. REILLY, WHO INHERITED $100,000, ACCUSED OF PASSING BAD CHECKS.

Walter A. Reilly, of this city, was arrested in Richmond, Va., on Wednesday on a charge of forgery. He is accused of forging several checks, including one for $3,500, which was cashed at the Madison Square Bank on April 24. The police learned of his presence in Richmond through a telegram from Carrington & Archer, proprietors of a hotel in that city, who wanted to know if he was safe for them to cash one of their checks for $1,000. Reilly, who is a native of New York, was arrested by Detective Sergeant Mulvey and taken to Richmond to bring Reilly back to this city. In reporting the arrest of Reilly, the police of Richmond said that the prisoner had expressed his willingness to return to New York without a requisition. He had added, it was reported, that he had squandered $80,000 of his inheritance.

It was said in the Detective Bureau yesterday that Reilly had been something of a "high roller" in this city since the death of his father, a few years ago, when he inherited a fortune of about $100,000.

Engaged in several enterprises, including the manufacture of artificial stone, but it was said that he had lost money in all of them and that he also lost money on gaming tables. His brother, Clarence C. Reilly, who had inherited an equal portion of the father's estate and saved it, died recently. Walter C. Reilly is the executor of the estate of Clarence C. Reilly and has the money in the custody of the Union Trust Company. The check for $3,500 which Walter Reilly had cashed at the Madison Square Bank was purportedly signed by Reilly, but was drawn on the Union Bank Company to the order of Dr. P. J. Lynch, of No. 216 East Thirtieth-st., who is Reilly's father-in-law. Reilly married a daughter of Dr. Lynch several years ago. Dr. Lynch said yesterday that his daughter and two children had been disgraced by the conduct of Reilly, but he added that he was not the complainant against Reilly, who had had the last word in the forgery. He thought that the loss of the money would fall on the bank. At the Detective Bureau, however, it was said that, as the Union Trust Company had certified to the check before it was cashed, the loss probably would be sustained by the company.

On his way to Richmond, it was said, Reilly had been accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Reilly, and a young son. It was said that Reilly had been a member of several clubs, including the Manhattan Athletic Club. He had lived in Tarrytown most of the time since his marriage.

A WOMAN'S TALE OF POVERTY AND DEATH.

MRS. SINGELMANN LIVES HER HUSBAND AND HER HOME, AND EXPOSES HER SICK CHILD.

A pitiful story of poverty, suffering and death was told yesterday at the Bureau of Charities by Mrs. Singelmann, of No. 112 East 125th-st., who brought the Health Board intended to take away her little son, who was ill with measles. The woman lately lived with her husband and her young son Edward in a tenement house in East Eighty-eighth-st. Her husband was dying with consumption at the time and his sickness had brought the family to the verge of extreme poverty. The family had no money to pay for the nonpayment of the rent about two weeks ago. Singelmann was taken to Bellevue Hospital, where he died on Tuesday. His wife and little son found shelter in the rooms of a neighbor, but a few days ago the boy was attacked with measles and some person in the house sent a request to the Health Board to remove the child. Information that the boy was to be sent to a hospital was given to Mrs. Singelmann on Tuesday, and she had been told of her husband's death, and she became hysterical. Taking the sick boy in her arms she carried him to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Stewart, at No. 172 Eldridge-st., and left him there while she went to the hospital to look at the body of her husband. Inspectors of the Bureau of Charities, Messrs. J. B. C. B. and J. B. C. B., were called to the house to see the sick boy. Mrs. Singelmann was informed that she might keep her son in the house in Eldridge-st., if she was taken to the hospital. Mrs. Singelmann, however, refused to do so, and the boy was taken to the hospital. Mrs. Singelmann, however, refused to do so, and the boy was taken to the hospital.

TEACHERS AND PUPILS' HEALTH ENDANGERED.

The dampness in the new building in which the New York Press Club is holding its fair has given many of those who have been compelled to remain in the building any length of time.

A number of times looking after the school children, who are in attendance every day to take care of the exhibits made by their schools, so many of the children caught cold and their parents protested so much that on Wednesday the school exhibit of the fair was closed, and it will not be opened again until this evening, when the meeting of the board of trustees will be held.

The school exhibit will be reopened, however, this evening, although fears are expressed that it will have to be closed permanently, as the parents of the children in attendance object to placing the health of their children in jeopardy.

Superintendent Jasper said to a Tribune reporter yesterday: "In reference to the complaints made by school teachers about extra work in preparing a school exhibit for the fair, I have only to say that the Queen's cause, upon her refusal to accept a pension from the Provisional Government, relying in the end upon the fact that the Queen's position was her to the throne. The Queen was entitled to the pension, and the Provisional Government, in its refusal to grant it, was in the wrong. The Queen's position was her to the throne. The Queen was entitled to the pension, and the Provisional Government, in its refusal to grant it, was in the wrong."

Some complaint has been made about the teachers who have had the school exhibit in charge being compelled to pay out of their own pockets for the covering of the tables at the fair. The teachers, however, are not to be paid for their services, and the expense is comparatively small. It falls rather heavily on them, however, as they have to pay for the rent of the fair, and the expense of the fair is comparatively small. A WOMAN'S STRUGGLE WITH A BURGLAR.

HE WAS AN EX-CONVICT RECENTLY PAROLED BY GOVERNOR FLOWER.

Edward Casey, twenty-six years old, of No. 325 East Thirty-ninth-st., an ex-convict, who was paroled by Governor Flower, was committed for trial in $2,000 bail yesterday by Justice Sims, at the Harlem Police Court, on a charge of burglary preferred by Mrs. Annie Payne, the housekeeper for Henry Shumans, a business man, living at No. 200 West One-hundred-and-thirty-first-st.

Casey was serving a sentence of twelve months for robbery, at Sing Sing, in the evening of May 2, Casey and another burglar forced their way into the basement of the house by means of a "jimmy," and were engaged in removing articles of value in the place when they were surprised by Mrs. Payne. Without uttering a word they pushed by her and gained the street, followed by the woman, who screamed at the top of her voice.

The noise she was making caused Casey to turn upon Mrs. Payne, and with a blow of his fist, knocked her down. Casey and his confederate then fled. But Mrs. Payne followed her assailant, keeping him in sight until he was arrested by Policeman Buckley, of the West One-hundred-and-thirty-first-st. squad. Casey did not readily submit to arrest, however. He tried to break away from the officer, and, in the process, he was overpowered him.

Buckley soon overpowered him. Casey was taken to the police station, where he was committed to the custody of the police.
